

I understand that there has been a petition to overthrow Indiana's privacy law that prohibits telephone solicitation. As a taxpaying citizen who does not want to receive these telephone calls, especially as I have an unlisted number that telemarketers and others manage obtain anyway, I do not want this law changed. We have a right to privacy and telephone solicitation is a violation of privacy. Thank you.